IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY | LIVE GREEN!

2011 Symposium on Enhancing Sustainability at Iowa State University

Energizing our Sustainable Commitment: Our Collective and Collaborative Roles

"I'm asking all students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends to join in our Live Green effort -- individually and collectively -- through their colleges and departments, in their homes, and various organizations."

Gregory L. Geoffroy, President

Overall Purpose

To celebrate achievements in sustainability and living green that have taken place at Iowa State University; increase awareness and understanding of viable sustainability initiatives we can and should pursue as a university; and offer a venue for exchange and collaboration which energizes and engages the ISU community around those initiatives.
